Forecast for Wednesday 18 Aug 2021

Weather: Dull with low cloud and hill fog in the morning and while mainly dry there will be a smirr of drizzle around, especially at height. Some breaks in the cloud initially in the Trossachs will then extend across Lochaber in the afternoon but probably not reaching Arran and south Argyll until later in the evening.

Chance of cloud free mountain/hill tops above 800m: 10% or less in the morning gradually improving to 70% in the north and east in the afternoon

Visibility: (Below the cloud) Moderate in the morning, occasionally poor in drizzle, becoming mainly good in the north and east. Cloud fairly widespread down to 400-500m, the odd lower patch, persisting over Arran and South Argyll in the afternoon but lifting to 750-900m and breaking in other areas.
